Application Cover Page

Welcome to The Hamptons, a community managed by Sea Breeze Community Management Services. We look forward to you becoming part of the community and working with us to make living in your new home pleasant and enjoyable. This application cover page is designed to provide useful information that can assist you in the application process.

- The Hamptons is made up of 395 single family homes located in Jupiter near beaches, restaurants and entertainment.

- Sea Breeze is a growing family-owned company. You will have a Property Manager who performs weekly property inspections of the community. Our office staff is available Monday – Friday 9 am – 5 pm to assist with all questions and paperwork. We work with your Board of Directors, who are volunteers elected by the community, to manage and maintain the community.

- Association Dues: Quarterly payments are due the first of each quarter. Make all payments out to The Hamptons at Maplewood Homeowners Association Inc. Payments can be set up on Direct debit or payments can be made, online through your Tops owner portal, over the phone or dropped off in our office.

The Application Process

- If you do not enter your correct Social Security Number to run background and credit checks your application will be denied and you will incur additional fees to process an additional application.

- To avoid added costs or delays be sure you are filling out the correct application.
    - Lease – person residing in the home during the approved lease term
      Everyone 18 or older must complete an application.
    - Buy a property – Purchasing the home to own
      Everyone 18 or older must complete an application.
    - Guest/Additional Resident – person residing in the home short term (usually 30 days or less) with an approved occupant
      Everyone 18 or older must complete an application.

- If you submit an incorrect application, there is no reimbursement and a correct application will need to be completed and submitted to get approved by the Board of Directors.

- Vehicle information must be completed in the platform do not input N/A if a vehicle will be parked within the Community.
- The rush fee option through Tenant Evaluation is to expedite Tenant Evaluation's time in processing the application to Sea Breeze. We then process the application and provide it to the Association Board of Directors for review.
- The Applicant will be our one point of contact for the application process. Limiting the number of calls and emails received will help eliminate confusion and expedite the application process.
- Applications MUST BE SUBMITTED AT LEAST 15 business days before the Closing Date or Lease Start Date.
- A Welcome Meeting/Interview to review Community information is also part of the application process to obtain approval. Sea Breeze will contact the applicants to complete the Welcome Meeting/Interview after application approval is received from the Association.
- A Certificate of Approval, which is required to close and before moving in, will be provided to the purchaser or renter after the Welcome Meeting/Interview.
- Moving in is not permitted until a signed Certificate of Approval has been issued.
- If purchasing, provide a copy of your Warranty Deed to Sea Breeze CMS as soon as possible after your closing to update your address and contact information.
  Sea Breeze is not authorized to change an owner's name in our system until we have received a Warranty Deed. If the purchaser does not provide this proof of ownership, bills will go to the previous owner and the purchaser may incur late fees, interest, and attorney fees. You are responsible for providing the Association with the Warranty Deed.
- For Rentals, owners must be current on dues and have no violations and no other rentals in that calendar year.
- If you are interested in receiving all official notices from the Association by Electronic Transmission you will need to complete the "Written Consent to Receive Official Notice(s) by Electronic Transmission". The form is available on the website at www.seabreezecms.com. Due to FL statute requirements, the change takes over 30 days to take effect.
- Service & Emotional Support Animal Requirements – Submit a letter from a Doctor that has been seen in person to state how the animal assists the applicant. Vet Records will also need to be submitted.
